Ireland-Palestine Scholarship Programme (IPSP)

The Representative Office of Ireland in Palestine is accepting applications under the Ireland-Palestine Scholarship Programme (IPSP) for the 2024-2025 academic year from applicants living in the occupied Palestinian territory. 25 full scholarships are being offered for one-year Master's-level programmes in Ireland.

The IPSP is part of the Ireland Fellows global scholarship programme run by the Government of Ireland. It provides opportunities for candidates to choose from a wide variety of courses at 19 higher education institutions in Ireland. Ireland Fellows Programme awards are fully funded.

- The award includes the payment of academic fees; visa application fees; medical and travel insurance; economy flights to and from Ireland; the Irish residence permit fee; and a monthly living stipend.
- Study in one of the best education systems in the world for higher education achievements
- Join the 35,000 international students from 161 countries enjoying Ireland's vibrant culture
- Live in an English-speaking country
- Experience living in one of the friendliest and safest countries in the world

To be eligible for the IPSP, applicants must:

- be a Palestinian currently resident in the occupied Palestinian territory, holding a Palestinian or Jerusalem ID;
 - have identified and selected three relevant courses from the Directory of Eligible Postgraduate Courses;
 - hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution with a minimum grade point average of 75% or 2.67 (or equivalent standard);
 - have achieved the necessary academic standard to be accepted onto their chosen Master's degree course in a higher education institution in Ireland (refer to the rough table of equivalency in the Selection of Course Choices section of the Guidance Note & Application Form);
 - be applying to commence a new qualification and not be seeking funding for a course they have already commenced, or which will begin before scholarship awards have been notified;
 - not already hold a qualification at Master's degree level or higher;
 - be able to take up the scholarship in the academic year 2024/2025;
 - submit with their application a valid English-language proficiency score report (dated September 2022 or later) with a minimum score of 6.5 on IELTS, or 550 on Institutional Testing Program (ITP), or 80 on Internet-based TOEFL (iBT), or 110 on Duolingo.
 - Prior professional working experience is not required.
 - Female applicants are strongly encouraged to apply.
